OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Annual Report of the State Superintendent.

Operations for the Year Ending June 1, 1868.

The annual report of the State Superintendent of Common Schools, Mr. J. P. Wickersham, for the year ending June 1, 1868, has just been published. From it we extract the following items of importance:

GENERAL SUMMARY FOR THE YEAR.

The following statement shows the general condition of the school system of the State for the year, with the increase over the previous year:

[illegible]

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

[illegible]

GENERAL SUMMARY, EXCLUDING PHILADELPHIA.

[illegible]

Ohio, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, for the year 1867, there were 1,329 convicts, of whom only 28 had received a good education.

"These facts show conclusively that our dependent and criminal classes are composed very largely of persons entirely illiterate, and almost wholly of persons either illiterate or educated only in mechanical branches which cannot be expected to affect, except indirectly, the moral nature."

REFORMS NEEDED.

The concluding paragraph of the report contains the following:

"In asking the Legislature to pass amendments to the school law, the fact is not overlooked that much work remains to be done to render fully effective the laws we already have on our statute books. The statistics presented show cheering signs of progress, but the educational goal for which we seek is still in the dim, uncertain distance. We have more than eight hundred thousand children enrolled in our schools, but many less than two-thirds of them attend regularly, and thousands spend so little time in school as scarcely to be benefited. Our average school term is less than six months in length; in almost half the counties it is less than five, thus compelling multitudes of our children to waste the precious years of their youth in idleness, and thus causing to the State the loss of its talent undeveloped—a loss forever unrecoverable. We expend for school purposes over $6,000,000 per annum, and still we have nearly two thousand school houses that are unfit for use, and not eight hundred that have about them grounds properly improved. [illegible]"

THE STATE FINANCES.

Annual Report of the State Treasurer.

The Expenses for 1868, and the Estimates for 1869.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Directory

The Chartiers Valley Railroad---Extension of Hempfield to Connellsville Railroad---Items of General Interest.

—The Cleveland Herald of Friday, speaking of the annual election of officers of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, says: "The election was a very important one, and created a good deal of interest among railroad men throughout the country. The contest was principally between the Erie managers and the old officers, and was won by the former. The particular object of the Erie folks in getting control of the road is not exactly known, though it is surmised that it was to obtain the use of the Union passenger depot, and thus compete with the Lake Shore. The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Road own one-third of the depot, and by getting control of that road the Erie people can lay a third rail from Newburgh and run their cars into the depot, and by thus connecting with the Atlantic and Great Western compete with the Lake Shore Road in through passengers and freight to New York. The move has been skillfully worked, as the success of the Erie interest proves, the Board standing nine for Erie and three for the old management."

Meeting of the Conference in Paris.

Reported Submission of Cretans to Turkish Authority---Feeling Toward the Chinese Embassy in Paris---Grand Banquet at Seville, Spain---The Greek Blue Book---Passengers Saved from the Hibernia, &c., &c.

Banquet at Seville.

MADRID, January 9.—A grand banquet was given at Seville last evening. All the municipal officers of that city and many other notables were present. One of the features of the banquet was the complimentary telegram which was sent to Espartero, wherein the guests expressed their preference for him at the head of State, whatever the decision of the Cortes may be relative to the future form of the government.

The Greek Blue Book.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 9.—The Greek Blue Book, copies of which have been received here, contains the statement that Gen. Ignatez, the Russian Embassador to the Sultan's Court, had assured Mr. De Lyannis, the Greek Minister here, that the Sublime Porte would not repress any action of Greece in reference to Crete.

The Cretans Submit.

LONDON, January 9.—Advices from Candia by mail fully confirm previous reports of the submission of the Cretans to Turkish authority.

Passengers Saved from the Hibernia.

A vessel has arrived here reporting having passed a ship bound for New York, with thirty-nine of the missing passengers and crew of the steamship Hibernia. They would be landed at Madeira.

The Paris Embassy.

PARIS, January 10.—The conference for the settlement of the dispute between Greece and Turkey met in this city yesterday. Their first session was a long one, commencing at four o'clock in the afternoon and terminating at eleven o'clock at night. The Greek and Turkish representatives both manifestad a very conciliatory disposition, and a peaceful result to the deliberations of the conference is looked forward to with confidence. The next session will take place Tuesday, January 12th.

The Chinese Embassy.

The official journal says the Embassadors of China now in this city are receiving every honor and attention, and declares that Mr. Burlingame's position as embassy is entirely satisfactory to the Emperor. The Embassadors will have a formal audience with the Emperor at an early day.

MEXICO.

AN EARTHQUAKE AT COLIMA.

Hills Levelled---Trees Uprooted---A Large Number of Persons Buried in the Ruins of Falling Buildings.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 9.—A letter from Colima, Mexico, gives an account of a terrible earthquake experienced in that city on the morning of December 20th. For several days previous, the volcano of Colima, thirty miles from the city, exhibited symptoms of internal commotion, sending forth smoke and steam, accompanied by rumblings and shakings of the earth, and on the morning of the 20th by a gentle rocking of the earth, which gradually increased in violence until the walls cracked and everything breakable in the houses was demolished. The vibration from northeast to southwest lasted nearly forty seconds. The cathedral, warehouses and brick buildings cracked from top to bottom. People started from their sleep and rushed frantically for the plaza.

It is reported that several persons were killed by the falling of the National Hotel. The shock was felt for a long distance in the interior. In several places the ground opened, trees were uprooted, hills levelled, water courses changed, and a general upheaval of the earth took place. At the city of Manzillo, the Cathedral building, which had stood the shocks of earthquakes and storms for over a century, was riven from top to bottom. Even the tiles on the roof were broken. Some eighteen or twenty persons were crushed by the falling walls of the American Hotel; three others were buried in the ruins of the warehouse of Wassmann & Co.

HAVANA.

Emancipation of Slaves---Dissatisfaction Among the Insurgents, &c., &c.

HAVANA, January 7, via LAKE CITY, January 9.—Advices from Santiago De Cuba to the first inst. are received. General Cespedes, Provisional President of the Republican Government, and Senor Aquilera were with the insurgents near that city, and have proclaimed emancipation of the slaves. They condemn General Marmore's course in destroying the aqueduct, and complain that the people of the Western Department have not heeded the call of the revolution, and that the Junta at Havana was furnishing no money.

It is reported that Colonel Benegasi has failed to occupy Holquin, and that he has been compelled to return wounded to Gibara.

The news from Neuvitas is to the 5th. No accounts are given of Valmaseda's operations. General Quesada is said to have landed from Nassau with eighty men and 3,000 rifles. Puerto Principe is still surrounded by small bands of insurgents. In the city prostration and gloom prevail. The shops are closed, and many arrests have taken place.

On the 18th ult. a fight occurred at Casualidad Yequasi, between 700 insurgents and 500 Spanish troops. The troops were defeated with heavy loss. Acosta reached Puerto Principe on the 20th ult. The wounded have been carelessly treated, and many have died. The proclamation of General Quesada has been received.

HAVANA, January 9.—A proclamation by the Captain General, abolishing court martials for the trial of civil cases, was to-day promulgated. Reports are fully confirmed that the revolutionists have decreed the abolition of slavery within their lines. The Spaniards here consider it a desperate measure and an indication of the growing weakness of the rebel cause. The commanders of some flying columns Spanish troops report that the revolution is gradually decreasing, but well informed Cuban's assert the contrary, and report that the Revolutionary forces are constantly receiving accessions from within and without the Island. The proclamation of liberty of the press has gone into full effect. The leaders of the Cuban party declare they have the greatest confidence in General Dulce as an honorable gentleman, but they say they cannot place any reliance on the compromise, or the measures he introduces, for another revolution may take place at any moment in Spain, which might change the whole aspect of affairs, and annul perhaps all the acts of the Captain-General, and anticipate that the recent liberal proclamations will cause a material change in the insurrectionary districts as soon as they become known there.

HAVANA, January 10.—The Diario, the organ of the slave traders and defender of the corrupt Bureaucracy, up to the present date, has published nothing of the new order of things, and sensible and moderate Spaniards are disgusted with its conduct. The Prensa, an ultra Spanish paper, and the reputed organ of the Jesuits, continues to publish bombastic articles, full of threats against the revolutionists. This journal is considered an open enemy by the Cuban party, and is respected as such. Several new Liberal journals have made their appearance. At the Tach Theater last night the revolutionary hymn of Spain was sung amid indescribable enthusiasm. Two battalions have left for Neuvitas.

The Daily Commercial.

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1869.

It is seldom a public man is killed by friendship. This, however, is said to be the fact in the case of Senator Morrill, of Maine, who seems likely to lose his re-election because of the main support of Senator Fessenden, wherein the Legislature shows a disposition to do a very foolish thing. Hannibal Hamlin is likely to succeed Mr. Morrill.

The New York Times' money article of Friday chronicles the return of Mr. Fransance A. Lane, one of the Erie trio, from Cleveland, where he carried the new Cleveland and Pittsburgh board on Wednesday last, and adds: "After this achievement it is intimated that the same party will soon be, if not already, in pursuit of the Fort Wayne Road, to control the annual election at Pittsburgh on the third Wednesday in March."

The Pacific Railroad Committee in the House, it is understood, will shortly report a bill for the construction of a road on the thirty-fifth line of latitude, the interest on the company's bonds to be guaranteed for fifty years, the company giving a mortgage as security, besides paying into the Treasury for fifty years three per cent. of the gross earnings, and for all time thereafter one per cent. A grant of land, also, will probably be made. These modifications have been made to meet the views of General Grant, and the bill may pass. It will provide, also, that American iron exclusively shall be used. These features are essentially the same as have been advocated in the Commercial, and which received the sanction of leading railroad men and members of Congress.

The Chicago Tribune don't like Senator Sumner's proposed addition to the Tenure-of-office Act of a kind of Police Court for ascertaining the animus. It suggests that as General Grant has been elected President of the United States, with the power "to nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate appoint all officers," etc., he would probably decline the duties of Police Magistrate, even if Attorney Jones's appointee did remain in office. With the Tenure-of-office Act continued, and such a provision added, the responsibility for keeping them in office would be upon the Senate, and not on the President. The Tribune says:

"We venture to say that [illegible]"

[illegible]

Whenever it has been proposed to dispose of these bonds, the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company has objected. The bonds, we believe, are only two in number of $5,000,000 each, [illegible] the State would be more likely to hold them and thus keep them from the market than if the bonds were in small and equal sums. No doubt the State, by judicious management, will realize a respectable sum by complying with the recommendation of Gov. Geary.

By way of illustration the Cincinnati Enquirer remarks on the above as follows: "Money, or that which circulates as money, has never yet, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, been too plenty in this country, or too easily obtained."

The purchasing power, not the quantity of what is called money, would, with such men, determine the question, were it submitted to the Enquirer. While no doubt can exist that the more money we have the better, we take it that it is no difficult concerning that which decreases in value as the quantity is increased. History is full of illustrations on this point. We are living under a state of things that furnishes the most complete illustration. The experience of the last half dozen years is conclusive as to what would be the verdict were the question submitted to the Enquirer people.

Gen. Grant has been compelled to say that the conversations published in the New York World, wherein he is represented as saying a great many things about a great many people, are purely imaginary, and he has caused it to be hinted that there is a grain of truth in the report that he wishes one of that man elected to the Senate. The numerous revelations by imaginative writers, concerning Gen. Grant's intentions are doubtless for the most part equally destitute of truth. That he has caused it to be understood that he is resolutely opposed to tapping the Treasury by jobs, and is determined on a policy of economy and honesty, is unquestionably true. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, who knows Gen. Grant well, says "it is well to look to certain instincts in the opinions and characteristics of the new President, which will afford unerring guides to those who are in search of valuable information." Two and trustworthy, they may be summed up as follows:

[illegible]

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

A meeting of the Society for Alleviation of the Miseries of Public Prisons was held in Philadelphia on the 5th instant, in which the proceedings of the meeting held in this city in favor of reforming the prison discipline of Pennsylvania were freely discussed. Hon. Joseph R. Chandler, Ex-Governor Pollock, Hon. Wm. S. Pierce, Rev. Dr. Brainerd and others addressed the meeting. One of the speakers asserted that the Eastern Penitentiary is the model prison and admiration of the world. Mr. Chandler's ideas of solitary confinement are peculiar, to say the least. The Judge sentences the prisoner to solitary confinement, but the latter is not really solitary. The prisoner is visited three times each day by the officers of the prison, besides the ministrations of a moral instructor. All the cases of insanity on record arose from the fact that the convicts were deprived of their accustomed stimulants. The system was intended to inflict the convicts with a true life from the knowledge that hundreds of his fellow prisoners had his reputation in their keeping, and that his success depended on their silence. In the way and breath Mr. Chandler states that two hundred cells accommodated four hundred and twenty-one prisoners, and relates an incident where two prisoners thus confined laughed boisterously the moment the moral instructor left their cell. At this point the audience indulged in a little genial humor. The idea suggested in the western end of the State that the convicts should see as well as hear the preacher excited his risibilities. Is this opinion "seeing the preacher is not everything. A good sermon from a homely man who is not seen, is certainly better than a speech from a handsome man whom is heard." We presume we are to accept his remarks concerning the Bible which he terms the French system? Is the same hoary vain. The ideas of more moving sufficient to enable them to reach this country, and pick out pockets. It is evident that Mr. Chandler was not familiar with statistics exhibiting the nationality of our pickpockets, or he would not have made this bold assertion. Mr. Chandler, alluding to the health of the prisoners in the Eastern Penitentiary, presented some figures, concluding with these words: "Why there is not a town in the State of the same population whose death list has not done better in the work. Why the prison is a hospital where the broken down ought to go for restoration."

All of the speakers referred much surprise at the tone of the remarks indulged in by the speakers at the meeting in Pittsburgh, which they asserted "was not a public meeting." They thought that the ideas advanced in 1787 were an excellent guide, and that we could not improve upon them. Everything that opposed the solitary confinement system (which after all is only solitary in name) was visionary, fallacious. One of the speakers compared the system to convents, "where no visitors are admitted," and where the inmates did not exhibit signs of insanity.

Passing over the levity betrayed by the prominent speaker, with the remark that the manner in which he approached the subject was not exactly the spirit we desire to see displayed in discussing so grave a question, we beg leave to correct the impression that the meeting held in this city "was not a public meeting," at which all interested in the subject had a right to express their views. The meeting was duly advertised, and the interchange of opinion free and unreserved. It is possible that all the wisdom, observation and experience, as well as the best intention in this matter are confined to the eastern end of the State, but we may be permitted to entertain a doubt. At another time we will have more to say on this subject.

COST OF THE PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Mr. Williams, one of the Government directors of the Union Pacific Railway, and a practical engineer, in his report of the cost of the road from Omaha to Salt Lake, 1,120 miles, on all of which the rails are laid, except the last eighty miles, estimates the total expenditure at $16,997 per mile, or $[illegible] for the whole line. The company received from the Government $16,000 per mile for the first 520 miles, $48,000 for the next 150 miles over the slopes of the Rocky Mountains, and $32,000 per mile for the remainder of the distance, being 450 miles. Total subsidy, $29,504,000, average per mile $26,[illegible]. The Government surrendered the first mortgage to the company. The sum realized for the mortgage bonds amounted to $[illegible], an average of $[illegible] per mile, showing a clear profit of $[illegible] per mile, or nearly $[illegible] for the entire job.

The shortest explanation of the foregoing figures shows that the managers built the road at less than three fourths of the amount charged per mile. Mr. Williams says: "The prices allowed are considered a liberal allowance for what has been actually paid to the sub-contractors, and for materials purchased, not covering the second profit, which, of course, is due to the intervening contracting company."

In addition to the clear profit exhibited in Mr. Williams's statement, there is the land granted to the company, of which Mr. Williams seems to have a poor opinion: "The lands granted by Congress, whatever may be their value, are, in my judgment, very large, in a further endowment from the Government."

We have always been in favor of the prosecution of this great enterprise, but the report furnished by Mr. Williams shows a state of affairs that requires immediate and close attention. The chances are that in time the land grant will be the greatest source of profit, which will be clear gain to the company.

"Getting them Under His Thumb."

If a man may be judged by his correspondence, the country will place a higher estimate upon General Sheridan than ever, now that the truth concerning the Indians and their hostile barbarities is becoming more apparent daily. In his letter to General Sherman, after asserting that the "friendly" Indians "have been playing fast and loose," and that he "will take some of the starch out of them before he gets through with them," General Sheridan proceeds to explain his plan of operation:

[illegible]

A correspondent describing the execution of William H. Carswell, at Rome, N. Y., on the 8th inst., says: "Then followed a singular scene. A sponge was saturated with chloroform and held under the murderer's nose. A few long respirations followed, the eyes became partially closed, and the chin gradually dropped upon the chest, when he was apparently stupefied. The sponge was tossed from the scaffold and Carswell was held in an upright position until the black cap was drawn to his neck, when the trap-door was dropped, and the pitiful wretch was launched into an unknown world." With beauty and silence, the manner in which executions are conducted now-a-days is not calculated to give to reflecting portion of the community an exalted idea of the majesty of the law. If it is necessary to administer beauty and chloroform to the poor wretches, why permit any one to stop them? Sensitive feminine ears, or one who is totally unconscious, is clearly cheating the gallows, and amounts to a civilization on the part of the advocates of which the gallows evidently has a right to complain.

The Herald is addicted to practical jokes. The last and best joke it has perpetrated deserves to be recorded. After stating editorially that those who are robbed of jewelry, clothes and goods can obtain them from the thieves on "reasonable terms," it exposes how this desirable end may be attained. The rogue has to see to the articles, he cannot sell them if they are advertised in the Herald, and in the latter case will return them to the owner for half price. It points the moral by citing how the owner of a diamond ring recovered it by anonymously advertising it. At the end of four days the thief returned it at a low price with the message, "you make such a —— of a blow about it that every other —— 'bout knows it." There are some people who would find advertising inside of four years, and many more who would object to paying fifty per cent. on the original purchase, to say nothing about compromising with thieves. If the Herald is really serious in this matter, it should prosecute thieves, and bring out three bails.

The public pulse of Philadelphia is exercised over a new fact concerning the Hill tragedy. No motive is Twitchell found guilty of the murder than his counsel, Messrs. Mann and O'Byrne, receive letters from unknown individuals, directed to these gentlemen separately, each individual writer avowing himself guilty of the murder. Should any more disclosures appear it is thought the jury will be compelled to consider in private their verdict. The calligraphy of the letters is said to warrant the suspicion that the diabolical could perpetrate any crime in the calendar.

A large number of Chicago gentlemen have memorialized Congress for the passage of a law prohibiting the carrying of petroleum on ships that are used for the transportation of passengers. The interest of this class of persons is presumed to arise from the fact that the Rev. E. J. Goodspeed, of that denomination, was lost by the recent catastrophe of the steamers America and United States. The subject equally concerns the whole community, and we hope Congress will show a disposition to act as promptly in this respect as for mitigating.

The opposition of John A. Logan to the Jenckes civil service bill, on the ground that it is contrary to the genius of our government, is a disappointment to his friends. The bill is contrary to the genius of theft and insincerity, and therefore must be in accordance with the genius of good government and the general welfare. The distinguished Illinoisan will commend himself to the confidence of the country by halting before he goes any further in that direction.

The United States, besides supplying the world with cotton, tobacco and sewing machines, are also engaged in the commendable enterprise of supplying European Governments with small arms. During the last year we sold the Prussian, Turkish, Spanish and Italian Governments [illegible] and thirty thousand rifles to the Chinese Government. From this it appears that the Chassepot rifle and needle gun are not valued so highly as the Spencer, Colt or Sharps rifle.

We find an extraordinary statement floating in the Southern papers to the effect that two ancient negroes, between 115 and 120, or thereabouts, neither of whom was a body servant to Washington, died recently at various old ages. We can credit the age, but we doubt the rest of the story. Every old negro who has died within the last twenty years was Washington's body servant.

Gov. Bowman's illness did not assume dangerous symptoms until the day before his death. At two o'clock on Thursday he bid farewell to his family, but at three o'clock rallied, and for a while gave hope. At eight o'clock there was a relapse, resulting fatally. The Governor's family and two officers of his staff were present when he died.

The New York Herald's dispatch says Mr. Grow withdrew from the Pennsylvania Senatorial contest in consideration of being urged for a seat in Grant's Cabinet, "as the leading politicians in that State."

The merchants of St. Louis, Missouri, are complaining bitterly against the course of the United States Government in ordering that Chicago shall henceforth be the purchasing depot for the supplies of the Upper Missouri region, which are now to be shipped to the Upper Missouri [illegible] Sioux City [illegible] Fort Benton, in 1868, and the Government, it is asserted, will be placed on the list this year.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

The population of Milwaukee has increased from [illegible] in 1850, [illegible] in 1860, [illegible] in 1865, to [illegible] in 1868, as estimated from the vote at the last election, and there are 21,000 children of school age in the city.

S. A. Cowles, of Troy, Illinois, sold in St. Louis ten hogs weighing 2,720 pounds, one weighing 700 pounds, for $[illegible] of. The heaviest lot received there this winter.

The three orphan children of the late Augustus Dickens have been placed by the probate court of Chicago under the guardianship of J. Linton Waters, Esq., an old and attached friend of the family. Mr. Waters was formerly from Salem, Mass. He will undertake the charge of the children until their friends in England shall indicate what their future is to be.

In the centre of the largest valley in the great Horse Shoe Basin of the Rocky Mountains, in the Territory of Montana, there stands a remarkable land mark, called "Beaver Head Rock." It overhangs a river of that name, measures 250 feet in height, and is visible for fifty miles up and down stream. The traveler, trapper, or emigrant, who has safely escaped through Dakota and reached this spot, although at the base of the Rocky Mountains, may gaze upon navigable waters that reach to the Gulf of Mexico.

General Grant, it is stated, wishes the grade of general to be continued, and is advising against the passage of the resolution offered in the early part of the present session declaring that the grade of General in the army shall cease when vacated by the present possessor. The General, it seems, is of opinion that this honor should of right fall upon Lieutenant General Sherman, and the rank of Lieutenant General, he believes, would be judiciously bestowed on gallant Phil. Sheridan.

The Press of Paterson, N. J., says that Mr. Leonard Chadwick may have been seen almost any day for many years past propelling his velocipede over the execrable pavements of that city, carrying pretty heavy loads and making very fair time. Mr. Chadwick says that on a good, hard road he will pass any horse that travels. He has, on the smooth turnpikes of England, gone seventy miles a day on his "tricycle," and not felt the fatigue greatly. He has often gone to Hoboken from Paterson, on the plank road, in two hours.

According to a calculation made by an Italian statistician of the quantity of iron consumed by the principal countries of the world, as compared with the population, it appears that the yearly average for England is about 170 pounds for every person; in Belgium, 120 pounds; in the United States, 101 pounds; in France, 75 pounds; in Prussia, 75 pounds; in Sweden, 41 pounds; in Austria, 25 pounds; in Spain, 15 pounds; in Italy, 14 pounds, and in Russia, 7 pounds.

Coincidently with the October earthquake in California, there were shocks in many parts of Mexico, some of which were severe enough at the capital, if not at other places, to materially injure houses and alarm the people.

Brazil has dispatched agents to England to recruit soldiers for her army on the Parana. Two hundred and fifty men arrived in a recent vessel.

The London Review is very hard on Mr. Reverdy Johnson for saying, at a recent banquet of the French Atlantic Telegraph Company, that "he was more sure that amicable relations would be maintained, whatever political changes took place in England or America, than he was of the sun shining upon London on the following day." This declaration the Review thinks "contained a piece of subtle irony touching our delightful climate." As it happened, the sun did not shine the next day, and very seldom does at this season.

The Commissioner of Agriculture has received from Florida a supply of fine oranges, lemons, limes, citron and Chaddock grapes. In a letter accompanying the fruit it is stated that so far this winter has been the coldest since 1835. Such fruit as pine apples, bananas, custard apples, etc., have been killed by the cold. The orange and lemon trees have not borne as well this year as usual on account of over-bearing in former years.

Brigham Young makes the shopkeepers of the true faith mount an arched inscription, "Holiness to the Lord," over their doors, with an eye in the centre.

Hon. E. B. Washburne states to members of the House that his speech was prepared without any consultation with Gen. Grant, and delivered without him seeing it or knowing its contents.

In the Circuit Court at Baltimore, it has been decided that a contract of marriage between slaves, legal and valid by the consent of the master and the moral assent of the slaves, although dormant during slavery, from the moment of freedom produces all the effects which result from a marriage contract between free persons. The slaves living together as man and wife at the close of the war did not, therefore, require to be married to make their contract legal.

The Redemptorist Fathers of the Roman Church have been holding a five weeks' meeting—or mission, as they term it—in New York city. Three weeks were devoted to women, during which 5,000 partook of the eucharist, and two weeks to men, 4,000 of whom received the sacrament. Fifty converts are claimed as the direct result of the mission.

OUR NEW SENATOR.

Opinions of the Press.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says: "We believe that Mr. Scott will represent the interests of Pennsylvania, as do Wilson, Morton, Drake, Harlan, Cattell and other Senators the interests of their respective States. He will have the opportunity to exercise all his political and statesman powers, legal knowledge, and [illegible] the position. Pennsylvania holds in the Union."

The Sharon Herald says: "The opinion is quite general that Pennsylvania has honored herself in her choice, and from what we have heard of the man, we are inclined to believe that public opinion is correct in this instance."

The Reading Journal says: "The choice of John Scott, of Huntingdon, for United States Senator, by the Pennsylvania Legislature, is one for the people that had for the Union. We will be represented by one who is a worthy citizen, and the natural foe of all who make it their business to live off of public plunder."

The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel says of Mr. Scott: "The State contains no abler or purer man; and we congratulate all the citizens thereof upon this selection."

A Washington correspondent writes us as follows: "I see various 'guesses' at John Scott's age. The following is from the record: John Scott, born July 24, 1824."

The Lewiston Journal says: "Mr. Scott is one of the first lawyers in the State, an avowed Republican, and a man who will reflect credit on the Commonwealth and his interests in the Senate, and we therefore heartily endorse his nomination."

The Reading Dispatch says: "He is a man from the people—identified with no faction of the party—and we predict that he will become one of the most popular Senators the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has ever had in the National Legislature."

PERSONAL.

—The Reverend Dr. Moses Ellis Moody is a Western sensational preacher, of whom the Xenia, Ohio, Torchlight says: "He may be supposed to have inherited the temperament of an old-fashioned camp meeting and got it mixed up in his mind with a modern spotlight revival. Where he is, there must be wind and thunder, and volcanic eruptions, and earthquakes, and the ground torn up by the roots."

—One of the most delicate witticisms, uttered by Rossini on his death-bed, is the following, which is characteristic of the affectionate relations prevailing between him and his wife: "What is the difference between you and a clock?" said the sick master to his faithful and loved nurse, who, she had just told him that time it was, and to Madame Rossini said she was unable to solve the enigma, he replied with his wit: "The clock indicates the hours to me, and you cause me to forget them," [illegible].

—Henry Clay's son, Theodore, is an inmate of the lunatic asylum at Lexington. An editor who witnessed a recent ball given in that institution, says: "The most noted of the male inmates was Theodore Clay and 'Boss' Lilly, the former is of small stature, thin, with gray hair and whiskers. He is partly bald, and keeps his cheeks smoothly shaved. He seldom smiles, recognizing those who address him by returning the salute politely and with dignity. In the summer, 'Boss' Lilly is very harmless. He is a pretty warm-looking man, and so never tired for the afternoon to go and dance all to pleasure. He is under the delusion that he owns the asylum and grounds."

—New York is promised the pleasure of soon hearing a new prima donna. She is a Scotch lady, named Elena Lanari, the wife of the director of a theatre in Florence, and has sung with success in several French and Italian cities. She will sing in opera and oratorio as well as in miscellaneous concerts.

—A sister of General Grant, Mrs. Mary Grant Cramer, is the wife of our Consul at Leipzig. She is also an amateur artist, and used to paint in the art galleries. Three count of the Germans saw one and admired the purely classical features of their unknown colleague, and when they were painting the treasures in the new art museum at Leipzig, they introduced her head on the Grecian goddess Diana.

It will be noticed that but for the recent subsidies to the Pacific Roads—which now amount altogether to over fifty millions of dollars, the reduction of the public debt since the close of the war would have appeared reasonably satisfactory, especially when taken in connection with the relief of the tax-payers of the country from nearly one-half the original burdens of the Internal Revenue system. As it is, the net diminution of the public debt since 1865 is nearly two hundred millions of dollars, and it is also a subject of congratulation that over five-sixths of the subsidies hitherto voted to the Pacific Roads, have already been issued and added to the debt. The prevailing belief is that no new subsidies should be voted, in the present condition of the Treasury. None will be needed to put the main line of the road through to the Pacific Ocean—the really great achievement in which the country is now interested.—New York Times.

The Chinese and Japanese possess voices of low power, feeble compass, whining in tone, and having a metallic twang. In India and Burmah, the voice is not powerful, but shrill, soft and feminine; that of the inhabitants of the hills is more robust than that of the inhabitants of the plains. The European Italians possess strong, powerful, sonorous, clear voices. The Germans possess the most powerful voices, but not so powerful as those of the Tartars, Sir Duncan Gibb, Vice President of the London Anthropological Society, has made these observations.

A gentleman who has lately explored the islands of Pyramid Lake, in Utah, which are credited from some superstitious fear by the Indians, says it is impassable to the breaking waves to walk on the islands without stepping on the eggs of gulls, ducks, pelicans, and other aquatic fowl. Two small rocky islands are alive with rattlesnakes, which bask in the sun on the rocks [illegible].

NATIONAL FINANCES.

Receipts, Expenditures and Estimates.

The following comprehensive statements of receipts, estimates, expenditures, and other matters bearing upon the financial condition of the Government, has been compiled from official data and furnished to the House Committee on Appropriations, by Hon. D. A. Wells, Special Commissioner of the Revenue, and will be found of interest and value:

Deficiency called for in Nov., 1867	$15,364,025
Deficiency called for in Dec., 1868	21,345,132
In January, 1867, the Secretary of the Treasury estimated the appropriations required for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1869, at	$372,493,939
Dec., 1868, he states that the expenditures for the first quarter are $[illegible], and estimates the amount needed for the remaining three quarters of the year at $[illegible], making a total, including interest and deficiencies of	$[illegible]

EXPENDITURES, 1868-69.

Appropriations actually made	$123,715,070 27
Permanent do. required, estimated	[illegible]
Interest account	129,679,974 50
Purchase money for Alaska	7,200,000 00
Deficiencies asked for	21,345,132 00
Unexpended balances of previous appropriations, estimated as required	24,099,184 58
Total expenditures for fiscal year	$329,676,164 25

REVENUES FOR 1868-69.

Actual receipts for first quarter	$95,392,868 77
Estimate of Secretary of Treasury for remaining three-quarters	246,000,000 00
Total by Secretary's estimate	$341,392,868 77
Special Commissioner's estimate	356,000,000 00

EXPENDITURES, 1869-70.

Appropriations asked for	$158,044,041 74
Permanent appropriations required, estimated	10,659,000 00
Interest account	129,030,676 00
Unexpended balances of previous appropriations, estimated as required	5,636,312 26
Total	$303,000,000 00

This figure gives all that is asked for, and there is reason to believe that the Committee on Appropriations will reduce the amount given to at least $290,000,000.

REVENUES, 1869-70.

Secretary of Treasury estimates	$327,000,000
Special Commissioner estimates	365,000,000

The following figures give the total expenditures of the Government for the last three fiscal years, with the estimates of the Secretary for the present and next fiscal years:

1865-6	$520,000,000
1866-7	346,729,000
1867-8	377,340,000
1868-9	336,000,000
1869-70	303,000,000

It should be said that $47,476,530 of the expenditure for 1867-8 was for bounties.

The following tables show the expenditures and receipts of the Government for the first and second quarters of the current fiscal year ending next June:

REVENUES.

Prison Discipline—The Effect of the Free Use of the Pardoning Power.

The following is an extract from a report about to be read before the Massachusetts legislature, on this interesting subject:

The commitments at the Charlestown State Prison in 1867 were 98; in 1868, 136; whole number in the prison, 734. The number pardoned during the year, 130, is larger, with one exception, than any year in the history of the prison. The warden says it is utterly impossible to keep up the necessary discipline and good order, and to maintain proper influence over the convicts, so long as pardons are thus freely, and, in a certain extent, indiscriminately dispensed. He thinks the principle is entirely wrong, and he records his solemn protest against the continuance of this great evil. The discipline, however, is of a high order. Last year the prison showed a profit of $22,741 26 over expenses. The result of this success has been to systematize every department, and to obtaining something near the value for the labor of the convicts. It is suggested that the inmates should become interested in the receipts by being permitted, for industry and good conduct, to draw a percentage of the surplus, the sum to be appropriated to the relief of their families or given them upon their discharge. The average cost per man has been $182 25, earnings of each man, $272 76. Ages of convicts now in prison: From 15 to 20 years, 128; 20 to 30 years, 120; 30 to 40 years, 82; 40 to 50 years, 34; 50 to 70 years, 18. Unmarried persons, 219; those are in convicts for 20 years each, 4. Three hundred and eleven of the convicts hail from Boston. In the institution there are only eight men who cannot read. Four of these are Roman Catholics, three are negroes, and only one Yankee, and he was born in Boston. Out of 348 men received into the prison in a year, only one of them born in the State, or even in New England, is unable to read.

A visitor to Malaga, Spain describes the process by which the chipped, cracked, or otherwise damaged almond kernels are prepared for market in the extensive fruit establishments of that city. The defective kernels are scrupulously sorted out and conveyed to a large, low table, round which half a dozen women are seated on the ground. Before each woman is a pile of the damaged almonds, a little pot of liquid gum, and a tiny mound of brown dust, gathered from the inside of the almond shells; by her side a basket, and in her right hand a camel's hair brush. Her business is to pick up almonds from her pile (which is constantly being fed by an attendant), paint over the damaged place with gum and dip it in the mound of brown dust. She then brushes off the superfluous grains of powder, and drops the apparently perfect almond into her basket.

CURIOUS SIGHT.

About 1 o'clock P. M., Friday January 8, 1869, Dr. R. M. Newcomer, in company with a peaceful citizen of "Burlington," appeared on our principal thoroughfares driving a pair of English steeds, twin-built, harnessed, and attached to a wagon of novel and familiar design, on either side the wagon was inscribed the immortal words,

Peterson's Corn and Bunion Ointment,

A SURE CURE.

It was the observed of all observers, departing words from the sensation its way, who were led to partake around attractiveness effects.

Nothing is so popular. Nothing so prompt for the relief of the pain occasioned by these pests of the feet. For sale by all Druggists.

Sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents.

Frank Leslie's New Paper.

The Handsomest and Best Family Journal Published

DEVOTED TO

ROMANCE, TRAVEL AND DISCOVERY.

Price, Six Cents per Copy.

As a Journal for the amusement, instruction, elevation and refinement of the Family, and as an ever-welcome companion for the leisure hour,

THE NEW WORLD

Will be found the most comprehensive of all the hebdomadals published.

It is devoted to everything that is pleasant—that is interesting.

Its contributors are among the most distinguished foreign and native authors. Of these, the names of upward of two hundred are upon its lists; who, in due season will prepare for its columns the most delightful romances, striking narratives, notes of various things, biographical and historical sketches, chats upon all questions of interest in every department of knowledge, and much besides, that will prove of inestimable value to the various departments of

ART AND SCIENCE.

In a word, THE NEW WORLD is sought by the multitude, and treasured for its teachings and varied contents. It is just such a publication as is demanded by the people—asked for in the home circle—because of its freshness, vivaciousness, wit, and elevated tone.

Among those engaged to contribute to its pages may be mentioned:

HON. E. G. SQUIER, the well-known antiquarian, author and traveler, whose works on the ancient ruins of South America have been translated into every language.

PROF. C. A. JOY, Lecturer on Chemistry and Cognate Sciences at Columbia College, New York.

A. K. GARDNER, M. D., author of many important works on Medicine.

WILLIAM ROSS WALLACE, the poet of passion and chivalry.

CAPTAIN MAYNE REID, the world-known interpreter of Mexican, Texan and Border life.

PIERCE EGAN, the great English Romancist.

A. J. H. Duganne,
G. W. A. Bungay,
Virginia F. Townsend,
M. A. Denison.

To give the public a fair idea of the character of THE NEW WORLD, the papers in the first number are subjoined:

CONTENTS.

"THE RING OF FIRE; or, the Sorcerer of the Temple, a splendidly written romance—profusely illustrated—from the pen of Arthur Sibley. This splendid story of the East, portraying the reign of the beautiful Zenobia, Queen of Palmyra, will be read everywhere with profound interest.

"OUTWITTED: A Novel of Circumstantial Evidence," by Francis Gerry Fairfield. This story is powerfully written, replete with incidents. It is a tale of life in the Metropolis. Illustrated.

"THE HOUSE OF MULLEN, ROKES & CO.," by Virginia F. Townsend, a lady whose graceful pen is known to every reader of belle-lettres.

"AN HOUR IN A DISSECTING ROOM." This tale of real life, by Mary A. Denison, is well worth attentive perusal.

"THE DIAMOND RING; How it was Lost and Found." The story is founded in fact. To commend it to the reader, it is only necessary to remark that its author is Hon. E. G. Squier.

"THE LOVER'S REVENGE: A Tale of the Mexican War," is unusually exciting. It is from the pen of Mayne Reid. Illustrated.

"LOST IN A PYRAMID; or, the Mummy's Curse." This is a fine, imaginative sketch, profusely illustrated. Its author is L. M. Alcott.

"HOW I GOT INTO THE BALL OF ST. PETER'S." An interesting relation, by Frank Leslie, of his ascent to the ball of the Church of St. Peter's at Rome. The situations in it are illustrated.

"THE POST OFFICE BOX; or the Conspiracy," is a curious romance of disappointed love and unholy ambition. It is by Catharine Earnshaw.

"THE MAGIC SOUP KETTLE." A Fairy Tale.

"WHO WILL CARRY THE BABIES?" A humorous sketch by Nellie Ames.

"POEMS." By William Ross Wallace and others.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE: Notes of the Doings of the Polytechnic Association and Farmer's Club.

MEDICAL INFORMATION: Health! What Is It? By Dr. A. K. Gardner, author of many Text Books on Medicine.

THE DINNER TABLE: How to Live and What to Eat. By the Chief de Cuisine of the Metropolitan Hotel.

SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERIES: Aluminum. By Professor C. A. Joy, Lecturer on Chemistry and Related Sciences at Columbia College. A series of exceedingly interesting papers, divested of learned terms and professional technicalities, is promised by this gentleman. They will, questionless, attract very general attention.

MANY THOUGHTS OF MANY MINDS: Being a curious collection of the sayings and doings of eminent personages.

WORLD WONDERS: Interesting facts excerpted from many books.

"RUBELLS." These consist of anecdotes, conundrums, etc.

A WILD STORY.—The Louisville Courier-Journal publishes a sensational story in regard to "a great subterranean conflagration now at the height of its progress" at the mouth of the Youghiogheny river. The story is that vast acres of coal are on fire, and spreading at the rate of sixty yards per day, defying all efforts at extinguishment, and threatening to endanger "the whole Pittsburgh coal field." This wild story has no other foundation than this—that large quantities of slack are slowly being consumed at that place, and have been burning for years, without inflicting the slightest loss.

THE PROGRESS OF THE "DRUMMER BOY."—The exhibitions of the Drummer Boy of Shiloh, given at the Academy of Music during the holidays, under the auspices of Post 1, Grand Army of the Republic, for the benefit of destitute soldiers' widows and orphans, netted in the neighborhood of nine thousand dollars. The exhibition would have been profitable for a long time had the company been able to "run" it.

THE CATHEDRAL SPIRE.—Workmen commenced on Saturday to remove the scaffolding around the new spire of St. Paul's Cathedral. Considerable care has to be exercised in removing the planks, etc., and several days will elapse before it is entirely removed.

FIRE MARSHAL'S INVESTIGATION.—Fire Marshal Murphy was busily engaged on Saturday examining into the causes of the fire which occurred in Allegheny City on Friday morning. The investigation has not yet been concluded.

METROPOLITAN P. R. W.—The company forming to purchase this road and those interested in the matter will bear in mind that a meeting will be held at three o'clock this afternoon, at the office of Jones & Ferguson, in Grant street.

A NEW HOUSE.—The Rescue Hook and Ladder Company of the old Eighth Ward, contemplate erecting a new house for their apparatus on Fifth street.

LENGTHENING.—The days have commenced to lengthen, and the sun rises earlier hereabouts.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Now is the Time to Subscribe---Grant's Election a New Era.

Every Man Should Know what is Going On.

The election of Grant marks an era in the history of the country. The future is full of promise. We stand on the threshhold of a period of remarkable interest. If the Presidential campaign awakened a desire for reading and intelligence, the election of Grant must create a wish among all classes to be well informed at every step in the career on which, as a people, we are about to enter. The people having elected a President by an unexampled majority, they will naturally wish to observe him at every step, know of every event as it happens, and have an intelligent understanding of men and things not only in our own country but throughout the world.

More than ever now a good newspaper becomes essential to every man who would keep himself informed concerning passing events. No man can pretend to know what life is or keep up with even the most moderate competitor, without he is the constant reader of a good newspaper. A good newspaper is the best investment any man can make—a poor one the poorest. Although established but recently, comparatively,

The Pittsburgh Commercial

has won a place among the first journals of the country, and by common consent is the Best Paper in Pennsylvania.

We might give from our correspondence and the notices of the press in this and other states, columns of commendation—testimony sustaining the claim we have set up. The reason is evident. We Give All the News.

And the habitual reader of the COMMERCIAL will find himself well informed on all topics of general interest. Few papers in the country have so extensive correspondence, none has so complete arrangements for gathering the news, and no other pays so much attention to adapting what it gives to the wants and associations of its readers. The COMMERCIAL is Not Merely a Political Paper.

An advocate of the principles of the Republican party, it returns to political friend and foe a thousand times what he pays.

The Daily Commercial,

ever since it was established, has been ahead in giving the latest, fullest and most reliable news. It is not too much to say—for it is a common remark—that locally it has caused a revolution in journalism, and it exerts an extended influence on the public mind. Not professing to be a party organ, and wishing not to be understood as the instrument of any set, sort or combination, yet devoted to the great principles which have so signally triumphed in Grant's election, the COMMERCIAL aims to be an educator of the public mind, the medium through which it will find expression, and the advocate and friend of truth in all things. If it is the organ of anything, it is of

Pennsylvania Interests,

more especially of the great industrial classes, with whom it is in the closest sympathy, and of whom it is a part. As a commercial paper, especially in its

Extensive and Reliable Market Reports, the COMMERCIAL is recognized everywhere as authority, and it is daily read and relied on in Banks, Counting Rooms, by the Mechanic, Tradesman and Representative Man of every calling. In this respect we spare neither labor nor expense, and we take pride in believing that we have won a position which older papers have striven in vain to obtain. In a word, if you desire the

LATEST AND ALL THE NEWS; THE FULLEST AND MOST COMPLETE MARKET REPORTS; THE CHOICEST GENERAL READING AND LITERATURE, AND A COMPLETE NEWSPAPER IN EVERY RESPECT,

Read the Pittsburgh Commercial.

There are thousands who cannot afford to take a daily paper, and to whom a weekly is all-sufficient, provided it be a good one. To meet this want we publish

The Weekly Commercial,

a very large sheet, each number containing an amount of reading equal to a dollar volume, prepared expressly for those who desire in one paper all the News, and Newspaper reading enough for a family. To this end we give in the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL the particulars of leading events, whether of Politics, Finance, Home Occurrences or Foreign Intelligence.

To render the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL of especial value to the rural portion of the population, we give extensively of Agricultural Reading, for which we have special arrangements, so that no number of the paper shall fail to give what to any man with an acre of ground will be worth many times the cost of a year's subscription. Besides this each number of the weekly is stored with Choice Family and Fireside Reading.

Including entertaining sketches of Biography, Travel and Discovery, interspersed with Poetry, stories and light reading. To this we add what has already caused the Weekly COMMERCIAL to be sought after very widely [illegible]

[illegible] Weekly Report of all the Markets of Pittsburgh and the Principal Cities at Home and Abroad.

These reports occupying nearly an entire page, are to the buyer and seller of whatever [illegible] invaluable.

The COMMERCIAL is published Daily and Weekly at the following rates:

Daily Paper, one year $10 00

(Liberal terms to News Dealers.)

Weekly Paper, single copy one year $2 00

In Clubs of Twenty, and a copy free to the getter up $1 50

What the People [illegible] of the Commercial.

DEAR SIR: I cannot let the occasion pass without thanking you for the fulness and correctness of the COMMERCIAL's telegraphic and market reports, the latter being worth hundreds of dollars to business men yearly. * * * In addition to its advantages in a business point of view, the fearlessness with which the COMMERCIAL battles for the cause of Republicanism must bring to it the gratitude of the party in Western Pennsylvania. To your influence over the business men, the solid masses of your county owe in a great measure [illegible] the overwhelming Republican majority in Allegheny county, to which we looked, and not in vain, for the redemption of our state. J. C. H.

EDITOR OF COMMERCIAL—I have been a constant reader of your very valuable daily for three years at B——, Pennsylvania, and I have removed to this place to sojourn for four months. I cannot do without the COMMERCIAL. I would rather have one number of it than a week's subscription of the dailies published elsewhere. DR. R. M. B.

Enclosed find two dollars as subscription to the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL. Mine run out, but I cannot do without it. D. G. D.

I inclose two dollars for the continuance of my paper. It has paid me many times the [illegible] in the past year in the selling of my produce. B. F.

Opinions of the Press.

The COMMERCIAL, the best of the Pittsburgh dailies.—Beaver County Radical.

The COMMERCIAL is one of the very best papers of the country.—Tuscarawas, O., Advocate.

We regard the COMMERCIAL as the best paper published in Western Pennsylvania.—Morgantown, W. Va., Post.

To those of our friends who wish to take a daily paper, we would commend the COMMERCIAL, which is, in our opinion, the best paper for general news, and the best paper for the business man to be found in the State, as it gives full and reliable market reports, stock reports, &c.—Punxsutawney, Pa., Plaindealer.

The COMMERCIAL is unquestionably the best news paper in the country.—Altoona Vindicator.

It is the best morning paper attainable, a fact which our people are thoroughly acquainted with.—Canton, Ohio, Repository.

The COMMERCIAL is truly a first-class newspaper.—Pittsburgh Post.

The COMMERCIAL is the largest and most enterprising daily in the State.—Ebensburg, Pa., Alleghanian.

The PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL is one of the very best journals in the country without regard to location. It is as near the perfection of journalistic excellence as any American newspaper has yet attained. Politically sound to the core, its opinions upon all questions of public interest are of especial value. For the business man it is no less important, containing the fullest and best edited Finance and Trade Review of any paper outside the metropolis.—Newark, N. J., Courier.

The PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL is about the only paper in that city that has ever achieved any reputation for enterprise.—Dayton Journal.

The newspaper of Pittsburgh.—Genius of Liberty, Uniontown, Pa.

The COMMERCIAL is the best newspaper published outside of the great cities.—Belmont, O., Chronicle.

It is the leading journal in the State, and furnishes a greater amount of news, fuller market reports, and a greater amount of interesting matter than any other paper circulating in this county.—Brookville Republican.

It is just the paper for every business man and politician.—[illegible], O., Age.

A first class newspaper. Its editorials are good, its selections choice, and its columns always teem with the latest intelligence, both foreign and domestic.—Buckeye State, New Lisbon, Ohio.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium, [illegible] reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends, and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a Life Insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents.

LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable indorsement, should be addressed TO THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

RED JACKET AXES,

COLBURN'S PATENT.

Patented July 9, 1867. Re-issued Aug. 18, 1868.

FREDERICKTOWN, KNOX COUNTY, O.,
November 2, 1868.

LIPPINCOTT & BAKEWELL:

Messrs—I received your second Red Jacket Axe per express, and now acknowledge the receipt thereof; and for the benefit of all whose desire or necessities make it their business to chop with an axe to say, to try the Red Jacket; and as the Supreme Court have held that a doctor's opinion without his reasons are of but little value, I would therefore give my reasons: 1. The Red Jacket cuts deeper than the common bit. 2. It being round at the cut it does not stick in the wood. 3. Every chopper with the common Axe must discover that there is as much labor and strength expended in taking the Axe out of the cut as there is in making the blow. 4. This with the Red Jacket is all avoided, and from one-third to one-half the time is saved in cutting the same quantity. 5. By putting in the same labor that is necessary with a common Axe, you can easily make at least thirty-three per cent. more wood in same time.

You are safe in letting any honest man try your Red Jacket on these tests, and if it fails refund him his money. Respectfully yours,

HARRY BALDWIN.

DRUGGISTS.

WHEN A PERSON TAKES COLD

The lungs become charged with phlegm, which, oppressing the constitution, a natural effort is made for its relief. This effort is a cough. The only safe and prudent remedies to be adopted are those which assist nature in its work, by loosening the phlegm, and exciting a freedom of expectoration, until the evil is removed.

DR. SARGENT'S

COUGH SYRUP

Is admirably adapted to promote expectoration, ease the breathing, loosen the phlegm, abate the fever, allay the tickling which occasion the cough without tightening the chest, and for all temporary and local affections, such as irritation of the throat, hoarseness of the voice, influenza, &c. It is of incalculable value, especially at this inclement season of the year. It would be well for every family to have this valuable remedy at hand.

DR. JAMES' INDIA BITTERS.

They impart vitality and tone to the Digestive Organs, cleanse the entire System and produce the most vigorous action of the various parts of the human body. They possess powerful tonic, alterative and diuretic properties. As a preventative of Fevers and Ague unrivalled; as a Tonic unsurpassed. To persons convalescent from long sickness, the market does not furnish their equal.

Manufactured by a Physician of long and extensive practice, and prepared on strictly scientific principles, they have already in certain localities where they have been introduced entirely superceded all other remedies of similar character. Their wide spreading fame has induced the proprietors at last to give the public generally the benefits of a remedy which in a short time will be found indispensable to the community. A judicious use of these celebrated Bitters in families will relieve many from the necessity of employing physicians at all.
